Holiday Safe Driving Tips

1. The designated driver should be a sober driver. Impairment begins with the first drink.
2. If you're going out, plan ahead for a safe and sober ride home, before the festivities begin.
3. When hosting a party, offer non-alcoholic mocktail options.
4. Avoid Distraction: Silence your phone, set your GPS device and pick a radio station or music playlist before you depart
5. Buckle up. Every seat, every time.
6. Avoid fatigue. Share driving on long trips. Stop often for breaks.
